QUIET DAY AT THE DEEP SATURDAY 18TH DECEMBER

Due to popular demand, The Deep is holding its next Quiet Day on Saturday December 18th. Throughout the day, audio will be turned down to make the attraction more accessible to those with hearing impairments who normally find some of the sounds distracting. Some of the presentations will be signed in British Sign Language (BSL).

The Deep's Operations Manager, Louise Kirby explains, "We will be making some changes to the audio visuals on Saturday December 18th, sound will be turned down and lighting will be brighter. In addition there will be scheduled signed presentations. Everybody is welcome, normal rates apply and there is no need to pre-book. It is an ideal day for deaf and hearing impaired visitors, and those who may just appreciate a more tranquil environment."

Please see the full schedule for the day below:

- 10.30 - Touch Pool Session at the Discovery Corner (BSL)
- 11.00 - Endless Oceans Presentation (BSL)
- 11.30 - Touch Pool Session at the Discovery Corner
